SAVANNAH, Ga. - The Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team's' 2010 NCAA Division II National Championships will be featured this Saturday on CBS Sports during the networks' annual NCAA Spring Sports championship wrapup show.

For the eighth consecutive year, all 88 NCAA championships will receive television exposure, including 17 spring sports being featured in a one-hour special. The NCAA Spring Highlight Show presented by LG will air at 4 p.m. Eastern, Saturday, June 19, on CBS. Highlights and stories from NCAA baseball, golf, rowing, softball, tennis and outdoor track & field will be featured in the program.

The AASU women's tennis team captured its third straight and sixth overall NCAA Championship with a 5-1 victory over BYU-Hawai'i in Altamonte Springs on May 15.

Before the matches, AASU head coach Simon Earnshaw, seniors Martina Beckmann and Gabriella Kovacs as well as junior Tina Ronel and sophomore Kathleen Henry were interviewed by CBS Sports cameras to talk about the national championship run.

Through the NCAA-CBS 11-year bundled rights agreement, CBS Sports has aired 23 seasonal shows from the three NCAA championship seasons (fall, winter, spring) over the last eight years. Each seasonal show features highlights and unique NCAA student-athlete stories from a variety of NCAA Division II and III championships.
